Lisa having finished school and higher education in art has been working within the costume and fashion world for the past twenty-five years. She trained with Toni & Guy - London in 1988 gaining a diploma in hair styling after years performing as a dancer on stages across Europe, which is where her love of the craft of costume making began. She also holds a BABTAC for makeup. She has gained a wealth of knowledge in all aspects of the costume design and the fashion industry over the years, working within major corporate companies and the more exclusive designer labels. Between 2005 – 2007 she co-founded and worked on the design and creation of “Attique”, a womens bespoke line created from vintage fabrics and trims sourced worldwide and sold in Los Angeles and London, which gained noted press and recognition. She has become a recognised costumer/ wardrobe stylist both here and abroad, having worked with many celebrity clients and fashion corporations. Her experience covers tv, commercials, red carpet/award events, live stage/theatre performances, music videos, advertising, editorial, fashion shows. Lisa is a member of The Costume Designers Guild Local 892
