office

Claudia has appeared and starred in a number of indie films and award winning short films and other major Hollywood motion pictures such as “Crossing Over” opposite Harrison Ford and the Mexican action comedy “Salvando al Soldado Perez”. She has also been the star of major national TV and print campaigns for brands like Budlight, Calvin Klein, McDonalds and Toyota to name a few and has graced the pages of magazines including Esquire, GQ and Maxim. Although fluent in English, her first language is Spanish. At the age of 4, she began training as a ballet dancer in her hometown Monterrey and continues to perform as a dancer. She graduated from Industrial and Systems Engineering from the Universidad Regiomontana when she was only 19 and subsequently moved to New York City and studied drama at the prestigious Lee Strasberg Institute. Claudia resides in Los Angeles, and regularly travels between Los Angeles, New York and Mexico.

Aside from acting, Claudia utilizes her eclectic ethnic background, comfortability in front of the lens and writing and visual communication talents, to collaborate with brands in the fashion, beauty and lifestyle industries that relate to her mission and style. She is devoted to creating high quality bilingual content for her highly engaged audience that showcases her inimitable style. Claudia enjoys traveling and event appearances, from fashion events to music festivals. Her style has been snapped around the world by some of the most renowned street style photographers and has been featured in publications such as Vogue, Elle and NYTimes Fashion. Some of her international campaigns and ambassadorships to top fashion and beauty brands include L'oreal Paris, Lexus and Aveda among others.
