

Timm Hoff

STORYTELLING THROUGH MANY MEDIUMS

Timm is an artist living in the Nebraska Sandhills. Timm finds joy in combining traditional techniques with modern technology. In recent years, he's been intrigued with combining traditional photography, relief printing methods, ink-making, paper-making, writing, and augmented reality to help tell stories in new ways. He is currently revising his Consciously Observing Art workshop and writing a book about a small town and the devil.
