Lucia is a New York Metro Area based Digital Artist. She earned a Bachelor of Arts in Studio Arts from Montclair State University and a Master's degree in Digital Communication Design at Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, NY. She holds a Visual Arts Teaching Certification from St. Peter's University. Lucia has taught Fine Arts and Digital Arts to high school students, Graphic Design to undergraduate students at Montclair State University and Digital Design courses to continuing education students at New York University.

Artistic Style: Lucia's mixed media collage work fuses commercial and fine art techniques. Hand drawn sketches are combined with found objects, photography, hand-rendered typography and presented in a thought-provoking photomontage. Inspired by music, Surrealism and the Freudian concept of free association, personal experiences and heartbreak, everyday encounters with objects people and places, the current social and political climate, her collages are spontaneous juxtapositions of unlikely things. She incorporates elements of pop culture; viscera; nature; animals; insects; and other eclectic ephemera into her work. The harmonious commingling of both digital technology and fine art techniques has allowed her to redefine and refine her art.
